Protect your home this storm season

Power surges can happen any time, especially in summer storms, putting your appliances in danger. By signing up for SurgeDefender, your motor-driven appliances like refrigerators, dishwashers, and air conditioners will be protected from the power surges that could ruin them. $9.95 a month on your power bill could save you thousands down the road. Visit georgiapower.com/surge to sign up.

Strategies for handling summer heat

When temperatures peak in the warmer months, your system has to work harder to keep you cool, which can lead to higher bills. To help out, we've put together a list of tips to help you conserve energy while keeping your home nice and cool. Visit georgiapower.com/tips to learn more.
